

Getting There . . .

Joaquin Miller Park is just off Highway 13 in the east Oakland hills. Take the Joaquin Miller Road exit and head east, up the hill.

The CWC picnic is at the Fire Circle. The closest parking is along Joaquin Miller Road. Look for the “sign twirlers” pointing the way to the CWC Picnic. Please note that if you park in the lots off Sanborn Road, it’s a long, steep walk to the Fire Circle. There’s no admission cost or parking fee.

Note: Joaquin Miller Park is in a quiet, upscale Oakland neighborhood, far from the troubles that regularly appear in the news media. Still, employ the same caution that you’d use in any urban park, sports arena or shopping mall: lock your car, don’t leave valuables in plain sight, keep your eye on your purse, wallet, camera, unpublished manuscript, etc. Dogs must be leashed except in the designated Dog Park.

For Mapquest, Google maps, GPS units and the like, search on:
3594 Sanborn Drive, Oakland, CA