When their editor called authors Louise Hart and Kristen Caven, to tell them the new title for their book, they were stunned. What is the antidote to bullying?

Come listen to this mother-daughter writing team talk about their long journey through the publishing world. Since their first book was published in 1989, they’ve been published, re-published, self-published, and everything in between. Louise made it to the top as an internationally recognized speaker, retired, then came out of retirement to write some more, inspired by her daughter and grandchildren.

Inventing Zorgos is the kick-off event for their book launch of The Bullying Antidote: Superpower Your Kids for Life, coming out in July from Hazelden Publishing. Come and learn all about Zorgos!

Dr. Louise Hart is the author of The Winning Family, On the Wings of Self-Esteem, and the forthcoming The Bullying Antidote. Kristen Caven, who illustrated Louise’s first two books, has been Louise’s partner every step of the way—as graphic designer, editor, ghostwriter and co-author, writing and publishing her own books along the journey as well. Together they have founded three publishing companies.
